

Where you can get further help

| Ref | Purpose | Link | Why we think it is excellent |
|-----|--|--|--|
| 1 | To build on your faith and understand “theology” or do “bible classes” | biblicaltraining.org | Whether you are a keen bible scholar or looking to do ministry full time (such as a pastor) this provides all information you need including recorded audio and videos. Content is FREE. |
| 2 | To download a bible app and various “plans” to help you grow: | www.bible.com | It allows you to connect daily with God through “reading plans” on various topics. These daily plans – such as reading the bible in one year plan enable you to incorporate the bible and related topics within your daily life. |
| 3 | To help you answer many of the common questions you have (or your non-Christian friends ask) | www.gotquestions.org | It addresses many questions that Christians find challenging when asked by others – including non-believers. The questions addressed range from the simple to the more complex. |
| 4 | To help you understand your purpose | www.purposedriven.com | Based on the book from Pastor Rick Warren of Saddleback church, this helps you as you begin on your faith journey and provides a clear purpose of our work here on earth – to Glorify a Holy God wherever he has called us. |
| 5 | To understand more about small group and home church ministry work | www.smallgroupchurches.com | Helps those looking to start “cell ministries” to provide a starting point and resources/guidance. |
| 6 | A local church in Jersey, UK | www.lighthousechurchjersey.com | This is our first home church ... so we need to spread the word ☺ |
