Why attend a Home Church/Life Group

Sometimes you might feel you are not ready to go to a church or you might have many questions as you explore Christianity and so you feel more comfortable to meet “one on one” with a few Christians.

Did you know that early Christians actually started by meeting in one another’s homes? They ate together, shared all things and experienced life together.

The Christian walk was not meant to be walked solo but we are called to help lift one another’s burdens and show brotherly (or sisterly) love to one another. We are also told not to give up the habit of meeting together. Meeting together helps strengthen you on your journey to seek purpose.

What to expect at the meetings

We shall cover a series of teachings including material from Lighthouse Church. The general format of the meetings however is:

- Welcome
- Praise and worship
- Testimonies
- Main message (bible teaching, video)
- Questions and Answers/Discussion on main message
- Prayers
- Close.

Come and expect to meet Jesus. He promised that where two or three are gathered. He is in their midst (Matthew 18:20).
